MORNING WORKSHOP

11:20 AM - 12:20 PM

Choose one of the following options for your morning workshop

TITLE	PRESENTER	DESCRIPTION	LOCATION
Exploring Confidence, Creativity, and Culture through African Dance	Forward Momentum Chicago	Get ready to move and play in this introduction to African dance that includes basic choreography and group collaboration.	Washington Room (5th Floor)
Obscure Stories: Queer Voices throughout History	Holden Thomas	In this hands-on workshop, people of all ages and backgrounds will learn more about the queer events and figures that have been too often ignored or erased, but had major impacts on our world today.	Millennium Park Room (5th Floor)
Stranger Things	Arts + Public Life Teen Council	Roll up your sleeves and let your creativity run wild in this art-making workshop where participants will create objects based on the stories that people share.	G.A.R. Hall (2nd Floor)
True Life: I'm a Working Artist	Teen Advisory Council & Working Artists	Want a look at what it takes to make a living working as an artist? Then come check out this panel, where artists will talk about their careers and share advice on how to make money working as an artist.	Claudia Cassidy Theater (2nd Floor)
What We Owe Art and What Art Owes Us	Teen Advisory Council at Old Town School of Folk Music	A roundtable discussion that explores art as a right, privilege, and responsibility.	Learning Lab (1st Floor)

AFTERNOON WORKSHOP

1:15 - 2 PM

Choose one of the following options for your afternoon workshop

TITLE	PRESENTER	DESCRIPTION	LOCATION
Art as Activism	Jalen Kobayashi	Art as activism will challenge and engage youth activists to utilize their experiences in Chicago to convey those experiences through a short poem/piece. Youth leaders will create a “Where I’m From” poem that they can share or describe to the other youth in the workshop. No experience in poetry is needed!	Washington Room (5th Floor)
The Art of Freestyle in Hip-Hop	Circles & Cyphers	In this highly interactive workshop, teens will hear about the history of freestyle and participate in a series of activities. Come share your voice while learning about “The Art of Freestyle!”	Millennium Park Room (5th Floor)
Character Development	Street Level Anime Club	Learn about character development from creating initial ideas to drawing them out in this hands-on workshop.	G.A.R. Hall (2nd Floor)
How to Review Theater without Everyone Hating You: A Theater Criticism Workshop	Ada Grey	Come learn about theater criticism from a teenager who has been in the business for ten years. Learn how to make your criticism compelling, honest, and helpful without making enemies.	Claudia Cassidy Theater (2nd Floor)
Podcasting 101	Street Level: Jazmine, Ira & Shane	Come and learn the basics of running a podcast. From setting up to brainstorming topics, we will go over our process for running our podcast “Street Level Cyphers” at Street Level.	Learning Lab (1st Floor)
